THE LEGISLATURE DRAWS TO A CLOSE

Wrayley Moore supported the amendment, which was carried.

Amendments were made in Matter and Servants Act requiring that a master employing a servant and who was holding wages due should be liable for wages which the servant might have earned between time of his dismissal and the recovery of wages due.

Honorable Mr. C. H. Mitchell.
On the adjournment of Hon. C. H. Mitchell an amendment was inserted in the Legislative Assembly Act, in order that the clause requiring 70 per cent of the population of a town with no other application, which was inserted in the act, was not to be taken into consideration.

Mr. C. H. Mitchell. I have the pleasure of announcing to the members of the assembly that the approval of subdivisions of city property is left to the city council, instead of vesting such approval with the minister of public works.

Mr. Mitchell's proposal to strike out the clause referring to towns and cities was defeated.

Amendments to the G.T.P. branch line company and the C.N.R. company guarantee acts of 1929 were passed, extending the time for the construction of these lines till December 31, 1932.

Most Members Resign in Protest.

VOTE FOR BRYCE J. SAUNDERS

The People's Candidate
for Mayor

The People's Candidate
for Mayor

A Greater Mayor ^{FOR} Greater Edmonton

Why You Should Vote for BRYCE J. SAUNDERS for Mayor of Greater Edmonton

Because

It is apparent that the City has not pace with the development of the Community. During the last administration, bickerings in the city government caused the municipality to get out of stride, and fall behind the general progress of the community at large, by one whole year. This is Mayor Armstrong's admission.

Edmonton is entering upon the most important and trying year of its career, that of amalgamation. Details that are not properly worked out this year will have to be paid for, in losses and painful readjustment in the years to come.

The present head of the administration has spent his time in making excuses for the various utilities. He has blamed the inefficiency of the lights, water, street railways, and everything else on Engineering Problems.

Edmonton owns more public utilities than any other city in North America. Some are losing money; none are giving satisfaction. They have not been satisfactory investments to you as stockholders in the municipal corporation.

Amalgamation is going to greatly increase those problems this year.

If there has been anything accomplished during the past administration, Mayor Armstrong claims all the credit; but for all of the glaring mistakes, failures, and inefficiency, he lays the entire blame on the commissioners, although he himself was chairman of the board.

At the end of a year's administration, Mayor Armstrong presents the citizens with a report of successive failures and deficits supplemented with a series of wordy excuses.

What Edmonton needs in the Mayor's chair is not a clever excuse maker, but a man whose executive ability, training and experience place him in the forefront of Canada's best and most successful men.

Bryce J. Saunders has made his career by facing and solving problems similar to those which have baffled the head of the present administration.

He believes in DEEDS not EXCUSES.

What Edmonton most needs is Co-operation in its government, and NOT EXCUSES AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

EXCUSES do not take the place of EFFICIENT SERVICE.

Mr. Saunders says: "I believe that the new commissioners are good, capable men. I want to HELP them. I have had a lifetime's experience in every branch of engineering, and have successfully dealt many times with the very problems which confront Edmonton today. I want to work WITH and HELP the commissioners."

"Moreover, I believe in letting every man who has enough faith in Edmonton to make his home here have a voice in the Government. The voting privilege should not be restricted to those who hold the land. Their interest is not necessarily greater in the city's welfare than that of the man who is making the land valuable by his very presence here."

"I want to encourage and help the workmen and new comers in every way possible."

"WHAT EDMONTON WANTS IS PEOPLE and EDMONTON SHOULD TAKE CARE OF ALL HER PEOPLE."

Mayor Armstrong says that the reason there is a deficit in the city's utilities is that coal costs so much. Then, I say, LET THE CITY OWN ITS COAL SUPPLY.

"I believe in public ownership of utilities, and am not pledged to any private or corporation interests."

If elected Mayor of Greater Edmonton, I will conduct the public's business as I would my own private business, and place its utilities on a PAYING BASIS, avoiding the blunders of the past administration."

Yours faithfully,

Bryce J. Saunders

T. J. WALSH, CANDIDATE FOR ALDERMAN.

Having been a resident of Edmonton and Strathcona for the past thirteen years, I have had an unusual opportunity to study the city requirements of Greater Edmonton. When amalgamation was advocated I was one who worked strenuously and conscientiously for it until its final consummation.

In asking the Electors of Greater Edmonton for their support in this amalgamation contest I prefer not to make any pretension of promises or to attempt now to formulate a civic policy, as undoubtedly the best civic policy will ultimately be evolved by the mayor and council acting together, on suggestions probably to come from the electors.

Consequently I feel aware in attempting to lay down any platform at this time.

Your support of my candidature is respectfully requested, and if I am elected I shall endeavor to be the best of my ability to work for the best interests of our Greater City.

Yours sincerely,

T. J. WALSH.

J. F. POLLARD for Alderman

After mature consideration and reflection I have decided to enter the field for a seat on the Aldermanic Board of Greater Edmonton.

My four years' experience on the Council Board of Strathcona puts me in a position to fully realize the responsibility that hangs on the shoulders of an alderman who tries to do his duty.

To those who do not know me personally or by reputation, either as an alderman or a business man, who has dealt with the people of both cities or the past four years, I would refer them to any one who knows me well, whether by my friend or not. After examining them, I think I will have no hesitation in giving me their support.

I would especially remind you of my past years as chairman of the finance and assessment committee, under which department the tax sale in the history of Strathcona was conducted. This had a great deal to do in placing the city on a strong financial basis, as well as clearing up tangled taxes, thereby enabling the city to unite with Edmonton with a comparative 2 clean sheet.

For the past 14 years, I have played during the municipal proceedings, in council and out, I would say it is a pretty bit of history. If I was asked to do it over again, I would be glad to do it.

In my opinion, who should I not be able to do it? I would say to you that my large questions which are likely to arise during the next few years?

I look forward to the time when the Saskatchewan river will be a source of a dividing line as far as the municipal feeling goes. That river will be running from north to south in the greater city.

In a position to aid in the early consummation of this end is one of my main reasons for coming before you and soliciting your support in this matter.

If elected, I will do my utmost to see that all changes and sections that are known in the next few years deal.

Sincerely yours,

J. F. POLLARD.

AROUND THE CITY

LOCALS

The Public schools will resume the 9 o'clock opening commencing Thursday morning.

The East Ladies Aid of First Presbyterian church are giving a concert and social this evening in Reed and Robinson's hall, Jasper East.

The funeral of the late John Cameron will take place from Campbell and McIntyre's undertaking parlors in St. Joseph's church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

A. T. Moe, of Wetaskiwin, formerly of Edmonton, writes to the Bulletin to the effect that he is not a member of P. G. M. of the Brandon College, who has been named by the principal of the college.

Rev. Mr. Forbes, of Grande Prairie, will speak at the Women's Missionary Society in Westminster church on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. McIntyre of Ponente, will sing. A cordial invitation is extended to all the women of the church.

Scotch folks, old and young, are expected to turn out at the Scotch school hall on Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The school has arranged for a real old country supper and entertainment for all who attend a very enjoyable evening.

Rev. J. E. Huchison, pastor of McLaughlin Methodist church, will not be able to be present at the Scandinavian Young People's Society this evening, but Dr. O'Leary of the Alberta College, will be present at 8:30 to address the young people on the topic of the importance of proper education. The meeting is at Houston Hall, west of the Windsor hotel.

A meeting in the interests of the work of the Health Mission is being arranged to be held on Sunday afternoon. Through the kindness of the Temperance and Moral Reform Society, the meeting will be held in the Monarch theatre in conjunction with their church service. Ministers of different churches in the city are inviting themselves, and a number of them expect to be present and take part in the exercises. The meeting will be in charge of Rev. Dr. McQueen.

TO CANVASS DIOCESE.

At a meeting of the central committee of the Anglican diocese in Edmonton, held in All Saints church Monday night, it was decided that the committee should do something practical towards the raising of funds for the new Bishopric of Edmonton. It was proposed that the Bishop and executive committee be asked to give their permission to allow a canvass of the whole diocese, being made for the first time. Already promises of $15,000 have been made towards the endowment of the Bishopric. A committee consisting of Rev. Mr. Boyd, Mr. Castles, Archdeacon Gray, Mr. Knapton, were named to take steps towards the procuring of a cathedral site. Another committee consisting of Mr. Owen, Rev. C. Carruthers, and Mr. H. Wilson, was also named to look up suitable sites for church extension in the city and in accordance with the central committee for the purchase of the same.

ELEVEN SMALLPOX CASES.

The city health department now has charge of eleven cases of smallpox, none more having been added to the list since yesterday. The additional determination for the care of smallpox patients has been completed and no further trouble is feared on that score.

The last case was reported from a rooming house on First street, where Dr. Whitelaw, medical health officer, spent considerable time last night vaccinating the inmates and directing the work of disinfecting the premises. The man, who was found to be broken out, came from Buffalo recently and it is believed he contracted the disease there.

Incidentally, two of the guests in the rooming house were detained in a row because they insisted on leaving for Calgary early this morning without the necessary permit from Dr. Whitelaw. The police were obliged to get by the policemen stationed at the rear entrance to the building, with the result that the officer was obliged to use some physical persuasion. Fortunately the smallest patient had been occupying a room all to himself and probably did not spread the disease.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Reports are being made to secure bail for Fred Merin and Paul Cattell, charged with attempted bribery of two witnesses for the prosecution in a criminal action against the former. They are both in the city jail and the police insist that they held the hearing set for this afternoon at 2:30 before Justice of the Peace Turnbull.

Cattell and Merin are formally accused of having tried to bribe Thomas McNamara and John Thompson, night watchman and clerk, respectively, at the Jasper House, when it is alleged, that Merin offered Fred Jennings a fare with his fat, on the evening of January 15th last, and inducing him to Jennings' suit cases were that he proved quite serious.

At the hearing of the assault case, in which Merin is the defendant, Thompson and McNamara testified that Merin offered them one hundred dollars each to leave the city and not appear against him. Other testimony was to the effect that Thompson and McNamara, at Merin's suggestion, went to a solicitor's office, where Cattell was a law student, the point where Thompson was the point where Thompson and McNamara were about to depart for Winnipeg.

The police say the case promises some interesting developments. Jennings Thompson and McNamara are being held in jail.

GRAIN GROWERS' CONVENTION

1,000 Delegates Will be in Convention at Regina.

Regina, Sask., Feb. 15.—With two hundred and seventy-nine delegates already in the city it is anticipated that the annual convention of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers, which meets here tomorrow, will show a record attendance of close on to a thousand delegates. Throughout yesterday and today the executive of the association have been busily engaged completing the final details for the convention and everything is now in readiness for tomorrow's opening. Today, the executives sat on a resolution committee but the resolutions decided upon for submission to the convention will not be made public until tomorrow. It is reported, however, unofficially that among matters which will come up for discussion will be the question of the present grain blockade, reciprocity, land insurance, recip-real demerage and terminal elevator. It is also stated, with what measure of truth cannot at present be ascertained, that a resolution will be introduced deprecating further active insurance until such time as the railways have caught up with the present extension of the west. Yet another resolution spoken of as likely to come up is one similar to that recently discussed by the United Farmers of Alberta proposing the boycott of eastern Canadian goods, shippers of the movement will be held in the city hall and special arrangements are being made for the city for accommodation of what promises to be the largest convention ever held in this city.
